D.M.A. FELLOWSHIP OUTING - The "Billy Graham's Hometown Tour" on June 4 is a unique outing about North Carolina's Favorite Son and his hometown of Charlotte. It begins at the Billy Graham Library, where you will discover how a humble farmer's son became pastor to presidents and shared God's love with millions of people around the world. Following lunch at the Graham Brothers Dairy Bar, you will head out for a tour around Charlotte, seeing some of the historic sites in the life of Billy Graham and his family. Cost is $40 per person. Departure from church will be at 6:55 a.m., returning around 9:00 p.m. See Jim Nofsinger by Wed., May 15, with your payment to reserve your place.

The Youth will attend the Impact Youth Conference for middle and high school students this Friday & Saturday at Appalachian Bible College. The cost is $30, and you can register and pay online using the QR code. When registering online, you will also need to fill out the

The combined middle school and high school mission trip will be July 6-13 in Cleveland, OH, with World Changers. What is Kids Club?

In short, it's a worship service for kids! We start this interactive service off by welcoming any visitors and learning Bible doctrine through Kids Catechisms. We then spend some time in worship through active music. This is also a good time to get some wiggles out. Children are taught God's plan of salvation throughout the Bible utilizing both media-based tools and in-person teaching. This fun learning experience is reinforced with tangible illustrations and games. We then worship through giving and spend a little time memorizing God's Word. We also learn about missions and about the missionaries that our offering goes to support. The majority of this service is led by our Kids Club Krew.

What is Kids Club Krew?

They are the team of 4th- and 5th-graders you will see giving the announcements, taking up the offering, leading worship and even running the media. They do lots of other stuff, too, such as taking attendance, snapping photos, welcoming visitors and leading the review games. Not just anyone can be a leader in Kids Club, though. Catch one of the Krew members after the service today and ask them about it.

Meet the Kids Club Krew:
